Pretty Home Wedding.

A pretty home wedding, celebrated simply, yet with dignity, was that occurring Tuesday at 5 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. LaBoon, 1608 South 7th street, at which their daughter, Miss Cora Lavanda, was united in marriage to Mr. Hosea Albert Haley.

Potted plants and smilax decorated the house, and a curtain of honeysuckle furnished the background for the improvised altar. Tall floor vases of white peonies and plants were arranged on either side of the altar. At six o'clock Miss Lois Bennett rendered the first strains of the wedding march, which announced the bridal party. Miss Sylvia Lloyd Fellers of Cameron, Mo., the maid of honor, came first with Mr. Eugene LaBoon, who acted as best man. The bride and groom followed, meeting the Rev. Mr. Campbell of Lindsay, who pronounced the words of the beautiful and impressive ceremony, at the altar.

The bride looked charming in a stylish gown of white crepe de chine and chiffon over tulle, becomingly draped, and carried an arm bouquet of exquisite white roses. Miss Fellers wore a dainty frock of white chiffon and shadow lace, over pink messaline and carried pink and white sweet peas.

The relatives and close friends of the couple, and the business associates of the groom made up the interested party of wedding guests. Ice cream and cake were served after the ceremony. Misses Doris Smith, Winnie Warford and Jewel Scurlock assisted in the serving. Miss Beulah Gamble entertained the guests with some piano selections as they enjoyed the refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Haley were most appreciative of the beautiful wedding gifts which they received. A chest of silver was the gift of Mayor Coffman, the council and city officers, and five of the police staff were the donors of a handsome rocker. Miss LaBoon's pupils presented her with a cut glass water set and there were other gifts of cut glass, silver, china and linen.

Mr. and Mrs. Haley left last night for Lawton and Medicine Park. They expect to be at home to their friends in two weeks at 727 South 5th street. Miss LaBoon has been a teacher in the eighth grade at the high school for a number of years and is a cultured and attractive young lady. Mr. Haley is a member of the Chickasha police force and is known as a young man of sterling character. Both are prominent in church circles and possess innumerable friends who wish them well.

Engagement is Announced.

Miss Ruth Wadsworth announced her engagement to Mr. E. N. Williams Thursday afternoon at a pretty party at her home, 202 South 13th street. Only members of the Dites Out club were present. The house was effectively decorated with red roses and ferns and further brightened with garlands of red hearts. The guests matched hearts for the game of "Hearts" finding as they did so, the date of the wedding, June 7, written thereon. Lovely refreshments were served in two courses, carrying out the color scheme of red and white. The guests were Misses Gladys and Helen Kimbrough, Neomia and Beana Bowman, Alta Grigsby, Ruby Langston and Regina Jones and Mrs. Albert Kennedy.

Priscilla Girls Meet.

A pleasant meeting of the Priscilla club was held Thursday night at the home of Misses Edith and Alma Buchanan. One out of town guest was present, Miss Byna Roche, of Olney, Texas. The other guests were Misses Augusta and Mary Eppier, Vida Owen, Julia Smith and Birdie Tinsley and Messrs. Ernest Eppier and Jim Owen. Music was a part of the jolly and informal entertainment of the evening, and at a late hour, lovely refreshments were served.

Picnic at Country Club.

A delicious picnic dinner was enjoyed on the lawn of the Country club Thursday evening by a congenial party of club members. Included in the party were Messrs. and Mesdames Shusher, Ludlow, Witherspoon, Frey, Hutson, Alger Melton, Hammerly, Dr. and Mrs. Homer Bond, Dr. and Mrs. Ambrester, Mrs. Blackmon, Mrs. Adrien Melton and Mrs. Hamilton and Mr. T. J. Boyd.

Elaborate Dutch Party.

It was an afternoon function of rare delight at which Mrs. John E. Majors and Mrs. C. M. Powers extended their gracious hospitality yesterday at the home of Mrs. Major to a smart company of Chickasha folk. A Dutch frieze around the walls, Dutch shades over the lights, Dutch pottery figures on the mantle and other ornamentation in Dutch design made the house almost a replica of a Holland home. Especially attractive was the dining table on which a Dutch scene was represented. A miniature windmill stood at the side of a mill pond in which were fish, ducks and frogs, and banks of Bermuda edged the water.

Little Miss Josephine Johnson, dressed in a quaint Dutch costume, played some characteristic Dutch music as the guests arrived. Table cards and score cards were also in Dutch design, carrying out a color scheme of deep blue. Cards were played at ten tables, at which lunch cloths in Dutch design were spread after the last game. A delicious salad and ice course was served, the color scheme being carried out in the cakes. No prizes were awarded but each guest was presented with a napkin case decorated with a Dutch figure.

This afternoon Mrs. Major and Mrs. Powell are hostesses to nine tables of forty-two, using the same charming decorative scheme. Assisting Mrs. Major and Mrs. Powell in entertaining are Mesdames T. J. King, J. J. Merrill, H. E. Marks, William Reinheimer, D. H. Roche, L. D. Major and Homer Bond. One hundred ladies were invited for the two afternoons.

Dance for the Misses Dashner.

Decorated in quantities of roses and honeysuckle, the Country club was the scene of a pretty dance last Saturday night given in compliment to two of Chickasha's most popular young ladies, Misses Nell and Lucille Dashner. Thirty-one couples were present, including a number of the married crowd.

The grand march was led by Miss Nell Dashner and Mr. Howard Hampton, and Miss Lucille and Mr. Jim Bradley, and dancing to music by a three-piece orchestra continued until midnight. A delicious two-course supper was then served.

Among the out-of-town guests at the dance were Misses Vendia Eckland of Clayton, N. M., Dorothy Callaway of Austin, Tex., and Stella Campbell of Minco and Mr. Finley Scruggs of Oklahoma City.

The Misses Dashner expect to leave soon for their future home in Dallas.

Mr. Majors is Host.

Mr. Howard Majors entertained a few members of the senior class of the C. H. S. quite delightfully at dinner Thursday evening. The attractive table decorations were of Kewpie design, a large Kewpie in the center being seated on a basket of sweet peas, and holding ribbon streamers to each plate. Small Kewpies were placed at each end of the table, and Kewpie baskets held nuts at each place. The ice cream was also in Kewpie molds. Music was enjoyed after the service of the lovely dinner, and later the guests were taken to the moving picture theater. The guests were Misses Marjorie Dwyer, Margery Cochran and Lela Majors, and Messrs. Norman Duncan and Marcus Weaver.

Series of Recitals.

Mrs. D. H. Roche will present the Junior members of her piano class in a MacDowell recital, Friday, June 2, at 3 p. m., at the home of her brother, L. D. Major. This is to be the first of a series of recitals which Mrs. Roche will give in June. The entire class will take part in the second recital, and two pianos will be used. The third recital will be given by the three most advanced pupils, Misses Marjorie Dwyer, Margery Cochran and Dorothy Stone, assisted by Miss Genevieve Shaughnessy, violinist, of El Reno.

Slumber Party for Guests.

Miss Helen Wood entertained pleasantly last night with a slumber party in honor of Misses Oriana Minette, Charibel Buford and Fay Young. Music and games were enjoyed until a late hour, after which dainty refreshments were served. Misses Buford and Young will leave next week for their homes in Walter and Norman.

Officers Are Honored.

An enjoyable open meeting of the Pythian Sisters was held on Monday night of this week, with Mrs. Mary A. Nichols, Mrs. Clara Pottinger and Mrs. Myrtle Garner acting as hostesses. The pleasant occasion was in honor of the supreme officers, Mrs. A. B. Morgan and Mrs. R. M. Evans, and the grand senior of Oklahoma, Mrs. W. S. Richards. Mrs. Richards was elected to this office at the Tulsa convention this month and her Pythian Sisters showed their appreciation of the honor bestowed upon her, by presenting her with a spoon. Cards were enjoyed during the evening and refreshments served.

Monday Bridge Club.

Mrs. Levi Wade was hostess to the members of the Monday Bridge club and a table of guests on Thursday afternoon of this week. Top score was made by Mrs. Bert Siddons, who received the club prize, a pair of silk stockings. A dainty salad course followed the last round. Guests at the meeting were Mrs. E. U. McArthur, Mrs. Bryce Smith, Mrs. W. C. Harwell and Mrs. Marmaduke Corbin.

The club members and their husbands will enjoy a picnic dinner tonight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sheegee.

Presbyterian Guild.

At the regular meeting of the Presbyterian Guild this week, arrangements were made for a social meeting next Tuesday in honor of Mrs. H. L. Shultz. Mrs. Shultz has been an active worker in the guild for some time and treasurer for the past year. She expects to leave near the first of June for Wichita where she will make her home.

All members are cordially invited next Tuesday and a pleasant afternoon is anticipated. Refreshments will be served.

Jolly Picnic Party.

A picnic party visited the family of H. C. Ucker, near the north bridge, Sunday, taking a delicious dinner with them and spending the day most happily. Composing the party were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bitsche, Mrs. Mahoney and daughter, Thelma. Mr. and Mrs. Will Logston and family, Mrs. M. A. Decker and children, Misses Agnes Buzzard, Irene Carney, Beadie Tolson, and Katherine and Anni Ikard, and Mike and Denny Carney, James O'Shea and Carl Hebbink.

Miss Fay Smith Gives Dance.

Miss Fay Smith entertained most delightfully with a dance at the Country club Wednesday evening, having about seventy-five guests. The ball room was beautifully decorated in wisteria and red rambler roses, the graceful clusters of wisteria blossoms draping the chandeliers. Roses banded the mantle and baskets of flowers reposed on the piano. The grand march was led by Miss Smith and Miss Rosa Chastain and Messrs. Bradshaw and Coffey of Edmond. A luncheon was served at a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Humphrey expect to leave tomorrow night for a trip of several weeks through the eastern states. They will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence G. Johnson in Chicago, and from there will go to New York, Washington and Philadelphia. They have planned to visit Captain Gilbert Humphrey at Fortress Monroe before returning home.

Mrs. E. C. Ikenhans expects to leave on Tuesday of next week for Muncie, Ind., where she will spend three months with her parents.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the United Charities will be held Monday, May 29, at 3 p. m. in the city hall.

Mrs. Claud Sigmon will entertain the City Bridge club on Friday afternoon of next week.
